About Monte-Carlo Société des Bains de Mer p17

Hôtel de Paris Monte-Carlo wrote a new page in its history

The world-renowned, iconic Hôtel de Paris Monte-Carlo wrote a new page in its history. In the centre of Monaco, the area around Place du Casino has undergone a huge transformation, giving rise to a new Monte-Carlo - with the Hôtel de Paris Monte-Carlo at its heart. A metamorphosis aimed at giving an even greater sense of definition to François Blanc's dream of "a hotel that surpasses everything created up to now" and of perpetuating the legend in the 21st century.

A magical hotel at the forefront of the luxury hotel sector

Hôtel de Paris Monte-Carlo was built in 1864 on the arid Plateau des Spélugues, when Monte-Carlo was barely taking shape. Thanks to support from Prince Charles III and Monte-Carlo Société des Bains de Mer et du Cercle des Etrangers, the billionaire François Blanc took a big gamble and decided to entirely change an area of the city covered in olive trees and lemon trees into a decadent venue of gaming and luxury – Casino de Monte-Carlo and Hôtel de Paris Monte-Carlo. For players travelling from all over Europe to discover the new face of the Principality, he had a hotel built on the model of the Grand Hôtel in Boulevard des Capucines in Paris. Affluence in all its splendour, the international elite rushed to stay - Kings, Princes, Heads of State, Ministers, the very best from governances, industry, science and the arts.

Hôtel de Paris Monte-Carlo, along with Casino de Monte-Carlo, established the foundations of the "resort concept". Over the years, it has been modernised on numerous occasions to meet the demands of the international clientèle. In 1909, the hotel was entirely renovated, when the architectural style of the Belle Epoque was adopted in Monte-Carlo. From its renovation to its extraordinary history, its life has been marked by visits of countless VIPs, world-renowned artists and celebrities. From the Prince of Wales, the future Edward VII, Alexandre Dumas, Jacques Offenbach and Winston Churchill, to James Bond (where the cast of Golden Eye stayed) and artists and stars of the stage and screen including Sarah Bernhardt, Charlie Chaplin, Maria Callas and Salvador Dali. Errol Flynn also celebrated his marriage there in the Salle Empire.

During the 1950s, the world came to visit the Princely Couple, Prince Rainier III and Princess Grace, where the Hôtel de Paris Monte-Carlo soon became a favourite venue for the Princess.

Continuing the story: A metamorphosis starts in 2014

Hôtel de Paris Monte-Carlo continues to be admired by guests from all over the world and bears witness to a lifestyle that harmoniously combines tradition and contemporaneity. Now, it is writing a new page in its history, with the renovation of its interior spaces and bedrooms, the creation of two exceptional Suites and the launch of ÔMER- the new restaurant by Alain Ducasse. A multi-phase renovation (where the Rotunda and Alice wings were completed between October 2014 to May 2017, Beaux-Arts wing, Casino wing, Lobby and Bar Américain from May 2017 to December 2018) has allowed the new features to be exclusively revealed prior to the full reopening in December 2018.

Monte-Carlo is being reinvented for the 21st century and a new chapter began

Act I

An iconic palace

“There, there is nothing but order and beauty, luxury, calm and sensual pleasure”,
Charles Baudelaire

The first part of the metamorphosis of Hôtel de Paris Monte-Carlo was its exalted architecture, with a façade that regains its Belle Epoque spirit from 1909. The hotel’s timeless feeling is preserved and enhanced by a contemporary design by the architects, Richard Martinet and Gabriel Viora, who put themselves at the service of the building. A monumental porch now decorates the hotel’s entrance, along with a new lift, of which the decorative railing has been reused from an earlier lift in the Lobby, adding a touch of modernity, while giving a second life to historic features that capture the hotel’s soul.

Scene 1: The transformation of the indoor spaces

With the addition of more contemporary and greener spaces (including gardens and planted alcoves), Hôtel de Paris Monte-Carlo now offers its guests the opportunity to relax in a garden setting in the heart of the city. The new Lobby, which was revealed in December 2018, has direct access to the new open-air inner courtyard called Le Patio. The large central bouquet continues to delight customers and visitors from all over the world, along with the statue of Louis XIV on horse-back. Guests can spot his shiny knee due to the continuing tradition of touching the horse's paw for luck.

A new rooftop Wellness space “Wellness Sky Club” opened since July for guests only, with 370 sq.m. of indoor spaces and 490 sq.m. of outdoor spaces, a terrace, swimming pool and loungers, steam room, sauna, fitness room and bar/lounge area. The new space complements the Hairspa by Rossano Ferretti and the Thermes Marins Monte-Carlo, accessible directly from the hotel.

Scene 2: New rooms to continue the legend

Hôtel de Paris Monte-Carlo has reinvented itself with a new type of bedroom, which is larger (a minimum of 34m²), more open and modern. There will be 209 rooms of which 60% are suites, 90% are bedrooms with a balcony or terrace and with a modern or classical design, and 43 are adjoining rooms. Precious materials have been used including Tussar silk for mattresses; chandeliers and lamps in Murano glass; floors in white Calacatta marble and leather from luxury Italian brand, Elite – who comply with very strict environmental standards. The bed linen from Italian company, Quagliotti is woven in Pima cotton or “Silk of the Andes”, a healthy and biological material. The bathroom products are supplied by Guerlain. Lastly, the fruity and captivating notes of Dr. Vranjes’ fragrances contribute to the elegant and refined atmosphere of Hôtel de Paris Monte-Carlo. The new bedrooms have superb and varied views including the new tree-planted inner Patio, over the Principality, the Place du Casino, the port of Monaco or across the sea.

The rooms are contemporary, light, with modern decoration, and soft shades. Expect furniture with sleek lines in precious wood, with inserts of gilded or patinated brass or glass. Leather, antique mirror, bronze and gold are also included, with a few coloured decorative items and the golden and warm tones of artists’ works add harmony to the whole look. The result is a warm and welcoming ambience, allowing guests to feel at ease.

The classically decorated room offer a more colourful atmosphere. The furniture is timeless, paired with Louis XVI style pieces for a touch of classicism. Bronze fabrics add a shimmer in the bedrooms and lounges while antique mirror, brass in the mini bars, velvet additions and decorative cushions in precious fabrics add refinement and additional comfort. The luxurious, soft and smooth materials create a room full of light and contrasts, delicately designed with the guest in mind.

Diamond Suite at Hôtel de Paris Monte-Carlo

Scene 3: The most exceptional Suites on the Riviera

The new Princess Grace Suite is the most exclusive and exceptional setting on the Riviera to date. Inspired by the timeless elegance and delicate refinement of Princess Grace of Monaco, this 910 sq.m. Suite is spread over two floors (7th and 8th), including 440 sq.m. of outdoor space – offering a rare, ultra-private experience like no other.

Suite Princesse Grace

Thanks to its spectacular outdoor space, guests of the Princess Grace Suite can experience sublime views from its terraces over the Mediterranean and the Prince's Palace. A heated infinity pool awaits opening onto an adjoining outdoor lounge and a rare granite jacuzzi. Not only does the suite offer excellent outdoor space, but plenty of room to relax. On the 7th floor, guests will find a bedroom, a bathroom with bath tub, steam shower and sauna, desk, two walk-in wardrobes and a lounge. On the 8th floor there is another bedroom, a bathroom with bath tub and shower, a living room and a dining room – perfect for groups of friends or families. Along with the exceptional interiors are the luxury services; a private Meet & Greet service at the airport or heliport, a private wine cellar and open bar with top-quality products, a dedicated private room at the Thermes Marins Monte-Carlo spa in winter and a tent at the Monte-Carlo Beach hotel's private beach during the summer.

In February 2019, Hôtel de Paris Monte-Carlo has announced a new addition with the opening of a second exclusive 525 sq.m. suite, the Prince Rainier III Suite. The largest suite in Hôtel de Paris Monte-Carlo, it has more indoor space than any other room with two bedrooms and the possibility to extend to 600 sq.m. with a third adjoining room - all of which overlooks Place du Casino. Guests can experience their own steam shower and sauna, private bar in the lounge, an office space and a superb 135 sq.m. terrace with an infinity pool with wave system.

Suite Prince Rainier III

Lastly, the Monte-Carlo Suite is exclusively dedicated to the biggest players in the game and offers an ultra-exclusive gaming experience: a 115 sq.m. suite reserved for the top customers of Casino de Monte-Carlo, with an English Roulette table and a Punto Banco or Black Jack table - which can welcome up to 10 people. An initiative that strengthens the historic ties between the Hôtel de Paris Monte-Carlo and the Casino de Monte-Carlo.

A unique culinary repertoire

“Cooking is a love story: you have to fall in love with the products and the people who make them”

Alain Ducasse

Scene 1: Le Louis XV – Alain Ducasse à l’Hôtel de Paris, the Table of excellence

At restaurant Alain Ducasse, Monte-Carlo Société des Bains de Mer has opted for excellence, which led to Hôtel de Paris Monte-Carlo becoming the first palace in the world to be awarded 3* in the Michelin guide in 1990. Set inside Hôtel de Paris Monte-Carlo, “Le Louis XV-Alain Ducasse à l’Hôtel de Paris” surprises and charms guests with Mediterranean haute cuisine. Alain Ducasse and his Executive Chef Dominique Lory develop “essential cooking” at the restaurant, paying homage to the product and endeavouring to release its perfumes and flavours. Up to 50 guests can choose from an unforgettable menu with an impressive wine list which reflects the destination and Hôtel de Paris Monte-Carlo - with a cellar containing over 350,000 bottles, showcasing France’s best wines from its most prestigious vineyards. On warmer summer days, the restaurant opens out onto an elegant ground-level terrace which overlooks Place du Casino. Like Salle Empire, it regularly takes part in the most grandiose celebrations of the culinary world.

Scene 2: ÔMER, Mediterranean creations by Alain Ducasse

At Alain Ducasse's new restaurant, his second in the Principality, is a new Mediterranean feel. Found on the ground floor of the new Rotonde wing at Hôtel de Paris Monte-Carlo, the restaurant, designed by Pierre-Yves Rochon, references the décor of a boat. Consisting of three alcoves and a surprising “Circle of wine”, it overlooks the beautiful hotel gardens, created by Jean Mus, with the sea visible in the distance. The atmosphere is warm and casual, with a delightful taste of the good life.

Here, more than anywhere else, produce from the land and the sea are intimately linked, which is key to the complexity of this cuisine. With his chef Patrick Laine, Alain Ducasse has created a menu that spans the diversity of Mediterranean influences, consisting of dishes which translate this wonderful culinary heritage with a focus on sharing. The menu combines freedom of choice and includes flavours and tastes from Greece, Lebanon, Turkey, Morocco, and Tunisia – with a hint of the Hispanic, Nice or Maltese shores.

Scene 3: Le Grill, an iconic address in the Principality

One of the most elegant and lively venues in the Principality of Monaco, Le Grill is on the 8th floor of Hôtel de Paris Monte-Carlo. With breath-taking views of the Mediterranean and the Principality, the restaurant features marine-inspired décor, high-quality cuisine and a roof that can disappear to offer guests the magical experience of dining under the stars.

Le Grill restaurant on the 8th floor of Hôtel de Paris Monte-Carlo

Now open with a more contemporary design, Le Grill has a new private Winston Churchill lounge and an extended outdoor terrace with stunning views. Franck Cerutti, Executive Chef at Hôtel de Paris Monte-Carlo, summarises his vision of Le Grill in a few words: marine and Mediterranean.

From the new terrace, take in a breath-taking view of the Mediterranean all the way to Corsica. At night, the sea twinkles with the lights from the coasts of Monaco, France and Italy, bouncing here and there with the lights of boats anchored in the bay. The Mediterranean flows from food to design as it was also the inspiration for the marine pattern on the blue carpet. The Salon Winston Churchill, with capacity for up to 18 guests, can be fully privatised. The “Cigare” on the dessert menu is a reference to Churchill’s illustrious character.

The interior décor has been updated with a modernised wood-fired rotisserie, which is still at the heart of the restaurant. Suspended from the spit, the pieces of meat and fish grill slowly for a more delicate taste. From the sea, local fish include sea bass, wolf-fish or John Dory, whereas from the land, choose the rack of lamb with a savoury sauce, or cockerel with the flavours of Provence. The pieces of meat are presented on table-top hooks, then sliced to be served.

Food enthusiasts shouldn’t miss the famous soufflés. Pastry chef, Olivier Berger, has created soufflé masterpieces with chocolate from the Manufacture Alain Ducasse in Paris with red fruits, whilst also revisiting classic recipes such as Grand Marnier or vanilla soufflé.

In January 2019, Le Grill, headed by Executive Chef of Hôtel de Paris Monte-Carlo Franck Cerutti, has been awarded its first Michelin star.

Hôtel de Paris Monte-Carlo also owes its reputation to its cellars, which were built behind the palace in 1874 based on the model of a Bordeaux winery. Named 'Cave Centrale', these cellars supply every establishment of the Monte-Carlo Société des Bains de Mer resort. Today, the cellars of Hôtel de Paris Monte-Carlo are exceptional thanks to their large 1,500 sq.m. surface area with over 350,000 bottles stored in over 1.5 kilometres of racks and 3,700 wine references. It is undoubtedly the biggest hotel and restaurant cellar in the world, showcasing rare wines and famous liqueurs in optimal storage conditions. Much older, ancient vintages cannot be sold and instead are stored in the Réserve Marie-Blanc, which was built on site in 1990. Guests can experience a one-of-a-kind dining experience in Hôtel de Paris Monte-Carlo's cellars in a reception room for up to 40 people. Available on request only, this wonderful opportunity was popular also with H.S.H Prince Rainier and H.S.H Princess Grace, as they celebrated their 20th wedding anniversary here in 1976.

Surrounded by a covered walkway, with mosaic flooring using motifs found in the Lobby's central cupola, and the marble-clad façades using the distinctive dark black Saint Laurent marble with strands of red and yellow, the central Patio area will be cobbled and decorated with palm trees and Mediterranean trees - creating a calming green space at the heart of the hotel.

Scene 2: Le Bar Américain, a myth reinvented

The legendary Bar Américain unveiled its new look in summer 2018. With new interiors created by David Collins Studio, the design elegantly combines the bar's traditional features with new elements that revive its personality. The walls are lined with amber and burgundy-coloured silk, subtly framed by rosewood, with new leather furniture in tones to match the walls creating an immediately welcoming environment. A marble floor mosaic and deep-pile rugs create a cosy and calming atmosphere, providing a glamorous daytime and night-time setting, thanks to soft, warm lighting.

With its central location in the city, both locals and international guests mix to experience live music and entertainment provided every evening by a group of musicians. The new terrace offers remarkable views of the sea, the Casino and Place du Casino. Lastly, Le Bar Américain has a humidor, which is offered to prestigious guests, who have the privilege of having their cigars kept in personal boxes.
