I. Luxury combined with character

Hotel Hermitage Monte-Carlo is a palace with exceptional heritage, proud of its history, but resolutely rooted in the 21st century. Its architecture is unique in the world, with a building listed as a Historic Monument, part of which is the sublime Eiffel cupola in the winter garden, designed by the uncontested master of metallic architecture. Since its creation, the Hotel has been renovated and modernised regularly, to harmoniously unite classicism and modernity. Overlooking the Mediterranean, with one of the most beautiful views of the Rock and the Port in the Principality, it enjoys a fabulous location, close to the vibrant centre of Monaco, yet remains a haven of peace for its guests.

An unparalleled Belle Époque style

At the dawn of the 20th century, Monegasque architect Jean Marquet built an upscale and luxurious hotel, a neo-classical edifice amongst orange and olive trees facing the Mediterranean Sea.

Eminent designers and artists put their stamp on the hotel's style. The dining room, named Belle Époque, is one of the jewels of Hôtel Hermitage Monte-Carlo. All by itself, it embodies the character and opulence of the establishment. The ceiling is the work of artist Gabriel Ferrier, Prix de Rome and 1889 Universal Exposition Gold Medallist who was inspired by the fresco, "Grâces Florentines", by François Boucher and Jean-Honoré Fragonard. In the 1970s, André Levasseur undertook the room's restoration, highlighting the pink marble columns, reminiscent of the Grand Trianon, amidst the crystal chandeliers.

Another of the hotel's wonders is the Jardin d'Hiver (Winter Garden). It owes its prestige to the glass conservatory created and erected by disciples of Gustave Eiffel. Its umbrella-shaped structure was emphasised in the 1970s with the addition of pastel tones, gildings and new lighting. The setting and serenity of the venue make Hôtel Hermitage Monte-Carlo a synonym of elegance and refinement.

Respecting its rich heritage, Hôtel Hermitage Monte-Carlo is regularly modernised to meet the expectations of its clientele. During the 2000s, a new phase of modernisation took place: over 90% of the establishment was renovated between 2003 and 2011. Everything is meticulously designed to achieve a harmonious marriage between classic authenticity and technological modernity.

II. A cocoon of serenity harmoniously uniting the Belle Époque heritage and modernity

The palace of Hôtel Hermitage Monte-Carlo is discreetly luxurious, with innate class and timeless elegance. It is a stylish retreat with a bright and graceful atmosphere. Its unique universe offers a perfect blend of its Belle Époque heritage and modernity, with 277 rooms, including 53 Junior Suites, 22 Suites and 13 Diamond Suites. All of these exceptional suites offer superb views of the Bay of Monaco and the Mediterranean. The rooms are also equipped with the latest TV and Internet technologies for maximum comfort, along with the reception areas.

III. A revamped gastronomic experience with the arrival of “Yannick Alléno à l’Hôtel Hermitage Monte-Carlo”

May, 19th 2021, Vistamar restaurant becomes « Yannick Alléno à l’Hôtel Hermitage »

Yannick Alléno à l’Hôtel Hermitage, an encounter between two exceptional personalities.

A restaurant appreciated by connoisseurs, created by Joël Garault and managed by Benoît Witz until 2019, before being taken over by the talented Jean-Philippe Borro, who continued to keep its star shining. The gastronomic restaurant of the hotel is preparing to undergo a spectacular metamorphosis by becoming the new address associated with Yannick Alléno, who is establishing himself on the Côte d’Azur for the first time. Why were they made for each other? Hôtel Hermitage Monte-Carlo is the embodiment of a unique experience in the Principality, where memory, talent and a sense of service come together to create the appealing atmosphere of a refined palace. Yannick Alléno owes his current international reputation to his vision of cooking as part of French tradition with a thoroughly modern perspective, open to the world, and it makes each one of his restaurants an experience that is unmissable.

Jean-Luc Biamonti- Deputy Chairman of Monte-Carlo Société des Bains de Mer, Chief Yannick Alléno, Louis Starck- Managing Director of Hôtel Hermitage Monte-Carlo

New moments for sharing in a new setting conducive to relaxation

Like a balcony on the Mediterranean Sea, the terrace has been redesigned in the spirit of a Mediterranean garden. Jasmine, citrus fruits and olive trees create a sweet atmosphere for a peaceful interlude. The atmosphere is further shaped by minimal tableware and the ultra-personalised service, coupled with the enveloping light in which the place is immersed and the omnipresent blue in every season.

When Yannick Alléno adds the Mediterranean to his cuisine

mascarpone ice-cream*

The Mediterranean is brimming with colours and gardens, and moving to Hôtel Hermitage Monte-Carlo was inevitable for Yannick Alléno, who will propose cuisine made with the best local products, uniquely seasoned, pigmented with his know-how and dictated by his environment.

The very first menu of the restaurant corresponds to new beginnings. It sets the tone for the next developments, which will take place in line with the seasons, temperatures and also desires: extremely refreshing cuisine when it is hot, or comforting when temperatures decrease.

A wide and generous menu created to please, which will be renewed as often as necessary to guarantee constantly renewed pleasure.

Rhubarb confit

The Signature dish? Here we would rather describe an invitation to discover the multiple facets of Yannick Alléno's cuisine, with flavours of the Mediterranean, in an indulgent or light version.

Yannick Alléno à l'Hôtel Hermitage, a new emblem of the attractiveness of Monaco and our region

The arrival of the multi-starred chef in the Principality from April 2021 is an event that is certain to bring joy to lovers of gourmet cooking, offering fine diners of the region the chance to visit this exceptional restaurant. It is yet another asset for the discerning international clientèle of the Monaco Palace and the Monte-Carlo Société des Bains de Mer Group.

The arrival of Yannick Alléno is in its initial phase this year, with the deployment of the new menu accompanied by a reorganisation of the famous restaurant terrace that boasts an incomparable view over the Mediterranean and the Rock.

In the spring of 2022, the second phase will be completed with the new interior architecture of the location that has been entrusted to Chahan Minassian, Yannick Alléno's faithful accomplice, over which the chef's emblematic trademark, the famous Pavillon, will fly.

This new restaurant reinforces a gastronomic offer resolutely mediterranean, healthy and authentic declined on 4 different locations, supervised with talent by Chef Jean-Philippe Borro : Le Limun, Le Crystal Bar, Le Jardin d'Hiver.

Le Limùn, RDV incontournable de la Principauté

It's also a popular spot for a casual business lunch.

The Crystal Bar, a chic and cosy champagne bar

The Crystal Bar is Hôtel Hermitage Monte-Carlo bar, an ideal cosy and elegant setting, inspired by English clubs with leather chairs in a resolutely contemporary atmosphere. In the winter, it's the meeting place for champagne enthusiasts or for enjoying an original cocktail before dinner or an exquisite after-dinner liqueur. Living place for local events, it will be the privileged space for participants of philosophe rendezvous of Monaco but also for thematic evenings about oenology and tableware ...

In summer, Crystal Bar will be on the paradisiac Jardin Excelsior to offer a lounge atmosphere. It will be the occasion to have a unique evening under stars in the heart of Monte-Carlo, with a wide choice of drinks, a finger food menu, a products mix to share using local produce. A casual moment to share in family or with friends.

Chic Brunch in the mythical Winter Garden

This iconic venue is now accessible to everyone, every Sunday under the Eiffel cupola for a Chic Brunch, to the great delight of visitors and residents of Monaco. Hôtel Hermitage Monte-Carlo, recognised worldwide for its elegance and its history, also stands out for its commitment to sustainable development.

Since 2017, Hôtel Hermitage Monte-Carlo has been using its excellence and expert knowledge to promote eco-responsible luxury.

Preservation, biodiversity and volunteering are commitments at the core of the hotel’s approach:

- Implementation of waste sorting throughout the hotel, including meeting rooms, for business clientele
- Participation in local voluntary initiatives and charities supporting a variety of causes (participation in the Pink Ribbon: a walk to fight breast cancer, “Les Anges Gardiens de Monaco” collection: essential supplies and hygiene products for those in need)

- Constitution of a “Green Team”, made up of the heads of the hotel’s departments, which works on the design, implementation and monitoring of actions. The motto: “Forever Green”

“The teams at Hôtel Hermitage Monte-Carlo have been committed to this sustainable approach for many years. The integration of eco-gestures in our work processes, the preservation, maintenance and enhancement of our heritage, and the teams’ initiatives such as upgrading our garden and carrying out actions for different associations are now part of the hotel’s identity, for our teams and our customers.

We are very proud of our Green Globe certification. It is both an achievement and obligation to continue our approach within the framework of our charter and that of Monte-Carlo Société des Bains de Mer”, comments Mr Starck, Managing Director of Hôtel Hermitage Monte-Carlo.

The direct actions in favour of sustainable development are reflected in the signing of the energy transition pact on 23 March 2018, our commitment to the Mr. GoodFish charter, signed in 2015 and the Green Globe certification obtained in March 2019.
